Pernel J. Sirmon Descendants

This document consists of some of the descendants of John (The Younger) Sirmon of Pitt County who was the son of Thomas, Jr. You may look at the Sirmon Family of Pitt County for more details about the earlier generations of the Pitt County family.

Jerry Sirmans sent me this e-mail: "I appreciate you putting the Texas Sirmans' clan on your web site, and I don't mind hearing/assisting those that are interested in finding out where they fit in the Sirmans family. I am attaching a list (incomplete) of relatives that I've compiled that you may want to use...or not. I'm going to a family reunion the 1st weekend in May where I will ask people to sit down with their elderly relatives so as to document the stories they've heard. Maybe this will give me something I can write illustrating when/where/why Pernel Sirmans moved to Texas. History is interesting, especially when it concerns one's relatives."

Descendants of Pernel Sirmans

We don't have many facts about Pearselle (Pernell/or Pernal) Johnson Sirmon but we have determined that he and his family arrived in Texas between 1856 and 1858. The following information is primarily derived from his sons, James Houston Sirmans and John McClennon Sirmans. To date we have little information about his other children. Maybe by posting this listing their descendents will make the effort to fill in the blanks. We also hope that if any of the below facts are in error that someone with firsthand knowledge will provide a more accurate update of the facts help us fill in the blanks.

- 1 Edward Sermoner, born about 1638, died 1676
- 2 Edward Sirmon Jr. (son of Edward Sermoner), born 28 Oct 1669 in Manokin, died about 1720.
- 3 Thomas Sirmon (son of Edward Sirmon Jr.), born 1696 in Hyde County, North Carolina.
